

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. L. Marble is in New York.

Messrs. Wm. C. Brooks and O. D. Swartout were at Lima, Wednesday, on business matters.

Col. I. N. Alexander is in New York on railroad business.

Emerson Priddy, Esq., of Delphos, was in town Wednesday.

Doug. Saltzgaber, of Marion, Ind., is in town visiting relatives.

Mr. W. H. Pennell has returned from his trip to New York City.

Mrs. M. Harnley is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Davis J. Cable, at Lima.

Mrs. T. J. Saltzgaber and Mrs. Lottie French, of Paulding, visited friends here yesterday.

Samuel W. Murphy, of Delphos, has returned to Van Wert. He is employed in the Star Bakery.

Elder G. G. Rupert, of the Advent church, is in town visiting his father. Elder Rupert has been in the South for several years past.

Mr. W. J. Veach, of Middlepoint, was called to Baltimore, Md., last week to attend the funeral of his sister. Her death was unexpected.

Rev. J. A. Bower has located at Bellaire, Ohio, a thriving little city four miles from Wheeling, on the Ohio river. Mrs. Bower and the children started last night to their new home.

J. W. Longfellow has removed to Roanoke, Ind., to take charge of the musical department in a seminary at that place. Mr. Longfellow is thoroughly qualified for the position and his Van Wert friends predict that he will be in every way successful.

H. R. Johnston, General Passenger Agent of the Mackinaw, has been granted an indefinite leave of absence to go South in hopes of benefiting his health. The arduous duties of his position which he has performed with marked ability seem to have been too exacting, and this Northern climate has not been agreeable in the winter season. He and Mrs. J. left last Friday for Florida, where, it is sincerely hoped, his strength may be regained and good health restored so that they may soon return.
