Dear Dad:

Thank you VERY MUCH for the understanding we reached together the other day.

Even though there is a great deal more I feel should be done, I am at least somewhat relieved under the current understanding between us.

We had a very successful visit in Rochester -- I feel I was able to totally support you, and show the people my dedication and loyalty -- and preached very strongly about the government of God.

I just finished two more radio programs today, and am air mailing them direct to headquarters.

I contacted Brian Knowles and told him it was perfectly all right for my article on "Why a CHURCH?" (which I hope will encourage people to want to become members) to go in the next issue of The PLAIN TRUTH.

Dad, within the next couple of weeks or so -- at least prior to your upcoming trip -- I hope it will be possible for you and I to have at least one more private meeting together.

I guess that's about it.

With much love
Your son,

Ted
