

RE: The 1946 Constitution says they were not incorporated prior

Good job. I spent a couple of hours on this issue and the 1930s ministry of HWA. I agree that there was no incorporation until the action in California. It makes complete sense. Somewhere HWA apparently said he incorporated as he need to do so to have a college and/or borrow money for the effort. Perhaps a further comment that he did not want to incorporate. I will chase that later.

I cannot find a way of e-mailing the Oregon office. I think it was an inauguration rather than an incorporation on 21 Oct of the first congregation HWA established, after the CoG split.

It may be that RCG was not incorporated until 1946?
