

George Bush links to Craig White

ARLINGTON, Va.--The official Web site of President Bush's reelection effort recently linked to Church of God member Craig White's Web site.

A visitor to the president's Web address informed Mr. White, who lives in Sydney, Australia, that Mr. Bush's site links to the text of Mr. White's www.originofnations.org posting of President Ronald Reagan's January 1975 speech "We Will Be a City Upon a Hill."

The link, from www.georgewbush.com, was still up at this writing.
