

History of Worldwide Church of God Ministerial Conferences

Assembled by C. M. White

Version 1.8

In an article written to the members about the 1960 conference, Roderick Meredith stated:

“The annual ministerial conferences give God's ministers an opportunity to discuss and go through various points of scripture and to come to new understanding on various topics each year. This year, Mr. Armstrong led the conference in a discussion on various points of prophecy and on the subjects of divine healing, vows and Sabbath-keeping” (“Recent Ministerial Conference a Big Success,” Good News, March 1960, p. 1).

This indicates that there had been ministerial conferences which were previously held in the 1950s. Trying to find information on these and other conferences pre-1960 with the exception of 1957 is difficult and are probably contained within the Worldwide News as well as the various ministerial periodicals (viz. Ministerial Report 1956-1957; Ministerial Letter 1957-1970; Ministerial Bulletin 1970-1973; The Bulletin 1973 to 21 October, 1977; Pastor's Report 7 November, 1977 to 2 August, 1979; Pastor General's Report 6 August, 1979 to 1990s).

Below I present the highlights for those conferences I have information. Articles from old Church of God publications may be found here.

1961	10 January: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> "Soon after arriving back in London from our African trip, it was necessary for us to fly back to Pasadena, California, the world headquarters of God's Church. For the annual conference of God's ministers was due to begin on Tuesday, January 10! Indicating the world scope of God's work, this year ministers from many lands were in attendance. Mr. Herbert Armstrong, Mr. Raymond McNair and I ali flew back from England to be in the conference. Mr. Gerald Waterhouse -in charge of God's work in Australia -had flown to Pasadena to be in attendance. Mr. Pedro Ortiguero had flown from the Philippines to be in attendance. In addition, more than three dozen of the other servants of God assembled from all over America to attend this year's conference of God's ministers." (p. 2) "A special highlight of this year's ministerial conference was the inclusion of the ministers' wives in many of the conference sessions. They were invited right into the meetings, and special discussions and lectures were conducted to give them help in becoming the right kind of dedicated, spiritual partners in their husbands' ministry. The wives all responded enthusiastically, and We feel sure that many of you brethren will receive greater help from them as a result ot their inclusion in this year's ministerial conference. Mr. Armstrong has often said that his wife shares 	"God's Church Expands World Wide!" Good News , February 1961, pp. 1-2, 12 by Roderick C Meredith.

(p. 2) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> NB: some say that a paper advocating a Sunday Pentecost by Ernest Martin (93 pages) was discussed in some way during this or the 1962 conference. However, I have not found any verification at this time. "Others began to do some research into the subject. One faculty member in A.C. wrote a 93-page paper in 1961 and submitted it to Mr. Armstrong. The paper tried to prove that Pentecost should be observed on a Sunday. Mr. Armstrong was not convinced and would not consider changing the day Pentecost should be observed." 	The paper and issue was looked at by HWA that year, but whether it was discussed at the Conference is unclear. E-mail from Robert Boraker, 19 March 2012. Others have confirmed the existence of this paper. This paper by Martin is also mentioned in the Bulletin (Vol. 2 No. 1) 12 Feb 1974, p. 6.
1962	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> "Mr. Raymond McNair, evangelist in charge of God's work in the British Isles, reported that there are now over two hundred people attending the London Church. There are around eighty-five in attendance in Birmingham, seventy in Manchester, and forty in Bristol." "Reporting on Australia, Mr. Gerald Waterhouse said that there are now about one hundred fifteen in attendance in the Sydney Church. There are fifty-five in regular attendance at the newer church in Melbourne, Australia. And, about fifty now attend a bi-monthly Bible study just recently started in Brisbane. Mr. Waterhouse reminded us that we are on thirty radio stations in Australia which provide an excellent coverage of that continent. There are now 2100 on our mailing list - and it is constantly growing. The WORLD TOMORROW is beginning to have a TERRIFIC impact upon the Australian people!" "Mr. Apartian, as many of you know, came to Ambassador College as the Professor of French in 1955. He grew up in Switzerland, and spent many years in France as well. Mr. Apartian was formerly with the United States Embassy in Bern, Switzerland, during the second world war. After the war, he immigrated to the United States and has since become an American citizen, and, more recently, a member of God's Church and a direct servant of Jesus Christ. Mr. Apartian reported that the French broadcast 	"Ministerial Conference Real SUCCESS!" Good News, Feb, pp. 1, 3-4, 11-12 by RC Meredith.

Then, on April 3, 1961, it started on Radio Luxembourg once a week at 5:40 in the morning. Yet, in spite of these poor times, about 80 letters a week are now coming in from the French broadcast! On October 3, 1961, we went on Radio Europe No.1." <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "Mr. Herman Hoeh reported on the German broadcast. We started on Radio Luxembourg in German in January, 1960 ... Mr. Hoeh as the over-all Director of the German work, Mr. Erhard Klammer, the speaker on the German broadcast, and the entire staff." • "Dr Benjamin Rea was called on to report on the Spanish broadcast. He stated that although the program had been on the air on small South American stations for three or four years the response has been rather small because of the lack of Bibles, education among the people" • Les McCullough ordained as preaching elder. • "it was definitely decided for Mr. Gerald Waterhouse and Mr. Carn Catherwood to go to the state of Alabama and raise up two churches--one in Birmingham and one in Montgomery, Alabama! This will put two of God's churches in the very center of the Deep South – the only major area in the United States where we have not as yet had local churches."
1963	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "New truth and understanding was brought out regarding the policy of God's Church on healing, on child rearing, on tithing, and many important plans for growth in local churches and Bible studies were made and discussed. Your PRAYERS for the success of this recent Ministerial Conference were certainly answered' The servants of God now ministering to more than THIRTEEN THOUSAND people attending our local churches in the United States and around the world were certainly encouraged, inspired and instructed in these important meetings!" (p. 5) • "During the Conference, on the Sabbath of January 12, seven ordinations took place in the services of the Shakespeare Club--where the Pasadena Headquarters Church regularly meets. This was an occasion of great REJOICING for everyone present!" (p. 6) • These were: Pedro S. Ortiguero (formerly of Church of God (seventh day)) raised to local elder; Richard Plache raised to preaching elder; David Jon Hill raised to pastor 	"Christ's Power Moves His Church Forward!" Good News, Feb 1963, pp. 5-7, 14 by Roderick C Meredith.

1964	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “The most important discussion under our section on doctrine and Christian living centered around the "spirit in man" this year. Mr. Herbert Armstrong introduced this topic, and has been doing a great deal of research into this matter. Suffice it to say at this time that all of us began to realize more and more deeply that man has a type of spirit essence connected with his mind which relates him directly to GOD--not the lower creatures of the animal kingdom! This "spirit" is undoubtedly the means by which God actually transcribes or preserves our individual characters and personalities so that they may be placed in our spirit bodies at the resurrection or back in bodies composed of matter for those who will not come up again until the Great White Throne Judgment.” • Ordination and raising in rank of 21 ministers. • “Dean Blackwell ... pointed out that the real PEAK of man's worth and happiness is achieved only through unselfish SERVICE to God and fellow man. He reminded us that this is a Work of GIVING the most precious thing in existence to all the world as a witness” 	“Christ’s Guidance felt in Ministers’ Conference”, Good News , Feb 1964, pp. 3-6, 15-16.
1965	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emphasis on unity • 12 ordinations approved including Ernest Williams of the Johannesburg, South Africa office • 7 new churches over the coming months announced: Des Moines, Iowa; Richland Center, Wisconsin; Dayton, Ohio; San Jose, California; Wheeling, West Virginia; Baltimore, Maryland; Brooklyn, New York • A number of new Bible study areas announced • “Although we discussed continually the blessings, the growth and the spiritual progress of God's Church and His Work, if there was any one spiritual theme underlining this year’s Ministerial Conference, it was the warning NOT to lose our first love - as the Ephesian era of God's Church - and NOT to think we are "rich and increased with goods"-as the Laodicean Church ... And let us become far more like Christ in every phase and facet of our own personal lives!” 	“God’s Unity seen in Ministerial Conference,” Good News , January 1965 pp. 4-8, 20-22.

1966	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jon Hill, Dibar Apartian, Les McCullough, David Antion ordained as evangelists • Harold Jackson the first African-American ordained as a pastor in RCG. Also ordained as pastors were Dennis Luker, Arthur Mocarow, Arthur Craig • Imperial School faculty began to assemble textbooks for the students • "... the great future work to do and the tremendous understanding yet to be restored to God's Work shows there is a gargantuan task yet ahead ..." (Church of God News, p. 6) • "Fourteen years ago, there were only two elders in the Philadelphia era of God's Church! Others had been ordained by Mr. Armstrong or had "joined" him in this ministry-but were soon found out to be unfaithful. Only Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Basil Wolverton-author of the Bible Story -remained faithful to Christ. Today, less than fourteen years later, there are 177 Ministers and Elders in this living and acting era of the Church of God! They are stationed on every inhabited continent except Asia-and the gospel is being preached to over thirty million people every week! In the spring of 1952, there were only three local churches in this era of God's Church. Today, less than fourteen years later, there are 124 churches around the earth-plus many more smaller meetings and Bible studies which would be dubbed "churches" by many denominations of this world!" Most important of all was the massive work on the subject of warfare and a complete understanding of God's command "Thou shalt not kill"" (p. 3) • "In the calendar year of 1966, 26 new churches were raised up, 18 in the United States and 8 in foreign countries. This brings the total number of churches worldwide to 146. In this same year there were 34 new ordinations and 26 raises in rank in God's Ministry, bringing the total number of ordained men to 210." Minor doctrinal or 'picky' Scriptural questions were preempted by the overall monumental purposes, objectives, plans and policies of God's Work as this age cascades toward its close.” (p. 3) • “On January 19, 1969, Mr. Colin Wilkins opened the new monthly French Bible study in Lyon, France. The January-February, 1969 total attendance was 54 - a very encouraging start. A new monthly Bible study at Brussels, Belgium, will begin on February 9 - with Mr. Carn Catherwood as its minister ... We have just completed moving into the new Hall of Administration which is the official name for the newest and finest building at Ambassador College” (p. 4). • 36 men ordained (13 ordained for the first time and 23 raised in rank) whom are listed on pages 23-24. • Ron Dart raised to evangelist rank. • “1968 will be remembered as the year that God unveiled a most momentous opportunity for fulfilling the commission given to His Church. Major circulation magazine advertising (Life, TV Guide, Reader's Digest) opened up all January-February, 1969 over the world. In addition, some of the most prestigious newspapers in England also opened their doors to God's Work. All put together, we have experienced the greatest surge of growth in a oneyear period that we have ever had. The PLAIN TRUTH subscription list jumped from 1,150,000 to 1,530,000, and we began two new editions of The PLAIN TRUTH - the Spanish (now 26,000 and growing) and the Dutch (7,000 and growing)!” (p. 24) • “Will YOU be ready? 	He hoped none of us would begin doing this, but if we did, he didn't believe it was wrong. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HWA: Ministers, inspire by your example. Lead, don't drive. Some begin to be overlords - heavy handed. • If I want someone to do something, I say "Mell, would you do such and such ..." I don't just order Mell (my driver) around". "Would you mind doing ..." or "will you do ..." • Be kind, learn gentleness and patience. • One man in a position of leadership, beat down and discouraged all of those under him. • "Christ is love. Have an outgoing concern for those under Him. Be warm, friendly, sincere. Request. • Mr A said "I wish I could just quietly put someone in his place". Said he was working to overcome. • Be a servant. Christ was a servant. Don't over use those under you (Min. Assistants) having them serve his own personal needs or wants. • If some are overlords - we might just jerk them right back here. • Ministers must avoid running others lives, businesses for them. Don't make their decisions for them. Merely give them God's basic instructions. • All ministers should sincerely avoid going overboard in styles, dress lengths etc. Look to headquarters as the example. • Mentioned one minister who differed on certain points, but he had never taught these things to others. • You are not at liberty to teach or preach contrary doctrines. These must first be cleared through headquarters. • 1Tim 3:1 Some may desire office of an overseer, but most who want to be ordained should not be! - HWA said. • Rod Meredith said - We have had tendency to have the people serve us too much. Some have deacons, deaconesses (or women members) serve them without pay. Lawn-mowing, maid services, baby sitting etc. Fix our cars, do our nanny act as nurse or sick maid. • Some church members like to do these things in order to "make points" so he can gain favours with the ministers - perhaps be ordained later.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Let us remember, we are there to serve them - not primarily to have them serve us. • Some members give ministers food, presents, discounts at their business store etc. • There are many of these people who later become offended if they are not ordained - or if they are corrected. • Mr A said that he could not think of one time when he had deacons or members do these things. Mr A said this way is not of God, but is the way of Satan the Devil. • Mr A said he wanted the Supervisors to see some of these "squirts" and teach them humility - not to abuse these things. • Mr HWA said some of these people look upon ordination more as a coronation. A. Many ministers are not qualified to advise in business matters. We can only advise on spiritual principles. Don't be afraid to say, "I just don't know" or feel free to refer a member to another knowledgeable member for business advice. We used to be a bit extreme on the thing of church government - used to apply this too often in interfering in church family's homes. Avoid giving the impression of being against the teenagers - not knowing the real facts of what is going on. Teenagers do live in a different world. B. Must know what you are talking about. We don't want to encourage any "wild" music. But it isn't always easy to know where to draw the line on music ... Show them that some of the Beatles music is ok. Don't just harangue against teenage music. C. If you [ministers] aren't warm and friendly, sincere etc - then why? Lack of prayer? Study? We are entirely too rank-conscious. Many ministers have a wrong fear ["perfect love caste out fear"]. D. When Mr HWA said it was ok to have shorter skirts lengths on the cheer girls - this was not communicated to the churches. E. Let us remember we are not policemen. Some try to legislate rules to prevent sin ... we need to avoid the two extremes of over- or under-policing. Don't feel that you have to police the Church's people's children ... we can make too many rules that we restrict people and their liberties. F. In the US Blacks are the best-off financially of any Blacks in the world.

One can deduct some types of traveling expenses. • In countries where tithes cannot be deducted, or where taxes are exorbitant, one may not be required to tithe on the gross income. Further research is being done on this. • HWA: The Levitical priesthood analogy should not be overdone. Mr A said we must not give up or change our beliefs – the truth – just to please or appease those in the world, newspaper reporters etc. [try telling that to some folk who think we should ordain women to the ministry, who are going soft on homosexuality, refuse to speak out on abortion and euthanasia etc, wish to water-down British-Israel, do not see that the Gospel is to be preached as a witness and warning etc]. Diet: Eat only those things which will spoil, before it spoils. Eat natural things, natural goods and avoid sauces, gravies, too much spices, dressings etc. Avoid too much sugar. But Mr A said he uses a little white sugar. Said he has eliminated most deserts from his diet. We need to avoid becoming cranks re food, diet etc [today, however, we have clearly gone to the other extreme]. Proof of the Bible: Mr A said we had taken our Babylon, Tyre proofs from a SDA booklet. But we have since come to see that we were in error by applying these

	scriptures to present-day Tyre and Babylon – when they really apply to “the Day of the Lord.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Herman Hoeh: Matt 18:15-17 – we are told to go to our brother if he sins against us. • “I am not a liberal. I am a progressive” said one member-employee. We have gotten away from focusing in on a way of life and have concentrated on lifestyle. • Histories of Rev. 2 & 3 reflected the economic, social and religious aspects of the seven churches. This is true of us today. We are being influenced by this world’s attitudes and ways. Righteousness, according to one student, was being tolerant of other’s life styles. • Dr Hoeh says that many conclusions, judgments and decisions [by ministers] are made without first establishing the truth of the matter. One man said he didn’t have any confidence in the ministry and didn’t want the ministers solving his personal problems. “The relationship between the ministers and executives is like that of the nobility and peasants” said one woman in the Church. One person asked how often the ministers have operations – had heard of Dr Meredith’s operation. • Go through the proper channels in ironing out a problem. Don’t go to the top first. Go up the ladder of authority. “We have not first gone one to another.” • Hoeh: “we have resolved the problem, but it has left a scar.” Learn to go to one another. • Mr A said a number of Kings in Old Testament were zealous in their youth, but fell away in their old age. He said he fears – and does not want to follow their examples. Mr A said he feels he is making progress [with his spiritual life]. • Mr A said in Oregon they used to study the Bible in private fellowship. But not so today [he lamented]. He said today there is a competitive spirit. “If we don’t do something about it the Church will fall apart.” [how prophetic] 23 January: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We need a ‘renewed sense of urgency.’ • HWA: “I don’t know of any other church which teaches the truth re out being born into the God family. We will never be equal to Him in power and authority. What other church teaches the Gospel of the Kingdom of God?”

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HWA: We need to be more alert to the fact that there is a devil, and he is broadcasting his evil ways. Satan is subtle and he is getting at many in the Church. • Personal Grooming, Style and Dress: • Are we setting our affection on things above? • We want to avoid extremes – undue tolerance or too much letter of the law obedience. • “Ministers’ wives should set the example for others.” [how about growing their hair – much too many women with man-ish short hair nowadays]. • Mr A said in the Sardis Church the wives of the ministers were liabilities to their husbands [in the 1930s]. Mr A said God gave him a find wife but said there will always be ripples in any marriage. • We are not setting a definitive no. of inches for skirt lengths, but they must cover the thigh. • Mr A said he hasn’t “cracked down” at HQ but he has preached a number of sermons etc, to combat wrong styles, fads etc. • New booklet on Proving the Bible thru 10 chapters coming. • GTA: He recommended that the local minister might visit a hospital once a month – visiting non-members. He said this may not [always] be a good idea. He said he feels the ministers could visit “half way houses” and learn what it is like to help people overcoming drug problems. He feels we need a more open, freer approach to people. • Mr A said if our hearts are right we will not be too picky about exactly defining every principle. Mr HWA said some women are bound to show a lot of thigh, but we are not to be overly critical or pounce. We are not to be too picky – “but I will not be specific to the exact no. of inches.” • The Church doesn’t have authority over our unconverted daughters [ie those not drawn into the Church]. But we (parents) do have. • These things are important but don’t get down to the exact fraction of an inch. Avoid extremism. • “If all men do it” – when “half or more” do it – wear side burns, then Mr A said he feels we could follow the styles. He said if 80% of Australians (according to Mr Cole) wear long side burns etc, it would be ok to do this.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We are ministers of the spirit of the law – not the letter. But Mr A said he likes to see a woman’s skirt cover the knee. 24 January: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mr HWA said he was amazed and dumbfounded to see mushrooming departments and lavish expenditure. Mr A asked the Ministerial wives to examine themselves to see if they are doing their job – are a proper help to their husbands. A wife can be a very great help [in the ministry]. She can give constructive criticism to their husbands. Encourage your sons to come to you. Be a good listener. Mr A said some tend to drink too much. Most of Mr A’ drinking (99%) is wine. He drinks a little beer – especially after perspiring. Some have been put out of the ministry because of being unable to control their drinking. God’s ministers cannot be drunkards. Neck ties: be stylish – but not wild or way out – not gaudy. We should not wear dull or dry colours.

Some 1400 people, including over 500 ministers from around the world, were present for the landmark occasion.” 20 workshops held “Too often some of us at headquarters have taken a theoretical, ivory-towered position in areas in which we have not had personal contact. The theoretical should not be ignored, but the practical input of everyday situations was invaluable in bringing some of us at HQ more in touch with the day-today field ministry.” 	“1974 Ministerial Conference. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ted Armstrong conducted the remainder of the session. First he discussed the role and effectiveness of the ministers, stressing the fact that they are to be "helpers of their joy - not policemen of their faith" (see II Cor. 1 :24). He encouraged ministers to ask themselves: What kind of minister am I? What kind of counselor am I? Am I a good listener? Am I a compassionate person, concerned with others? He stressed that ministers should help people - whether within or outside the Church - whenever they see a need, a problem, or an affliction. The afternoon meeting ended with a 40-minute session of questions from the floor. • "A shepherd is always with his flocks; he stays out in the field with them, protects them, looks after them and sees to it that they 're fed properly. The images that are drawn in the Bible of a shepherd are those of gentleness, kindness, love and concern ... He is not to make their decisions for them. He is there to provide guidance and counsel, to be a friend, a confidant, a comforter in time of trouble." (Ron Dart) • There is no problem with Plain Truth readers attending services.

I feel it imperative in a church of size to never fail to have one annual conference of some aggregate or another. For the next year, we will have a conference for area coordinators and senior pastors only, and the following year a wider conference including all pastors of churches and/or others. Wives will be invited as well." 	Pastor's Report , 16 March 1978, p. 3.
