

Preface and Dedication

In this booklet , as also in our former and more exhaustive work, Judah's Sceptre and Joseph's Birthright, we have thrown the burden of the evidence chiefly on the fact that the two great Anglo-Saxon peoples, the British Empire and the United States of America, are the posterity of the two sons of Joseph.

The reason we have dealt so largely with the house of Joseph is because Joseph, as the birthright holder, represents the “many nations” promised to Abraham, while Judah represents the sceptre.

Each tribe had its distinct and individual promised blessing, inheritance and destiny and this was the underlying cause of the separation and division of the seed of Abraham into two kingdoms, two nations, two houses.

These two commonwealths are carried through Biblical history and prophecy mostly by the distinguishing names of "The house of Israel" and "The house of Judah," "The whole house of Israel" as distinguished from "The WHOLE house of Judah" or simply “Israel and Judah”.

Sometimes the capital of each of these two kingdoms is used both in history and in prophecy to signify the nation whose seat of government it was or had been, i. e., Shechem, Tirzah, Samaria for Israel, and Jerusalem the capital of Judah- the Jews, whose territory as distinguished from Samaria, the country of Israel was called Judah, Judeah, Judea and Jewry.

Just here, it is important that we say, for the critical student of the Bible, that the name Jerusalem is often used in prophecy as including Israel as well as Judah, because Jerusalem is to be the future capital of the reunited houses of Abrahamic seed.

For the destiny of these two houses, first historically and then prophetically, has been carried down through the word of God to the end of the Gospel Age still separated, but which, at the end of this age and after the resurrection, the entire race of the chosen seed shall become one nation, never to be divided again, when one shepherd shall feed them, one king shall be king to them all, and his name shall ONE, i.e. UNITED. But with those who oppose the truth we thus bring, the claim is that Israel — the ten-tribed kingdom — ceased to exist, that God swept them off the face of the earth, that there is no Israel on the earth today except the Jews, and that the name Jews has become the generic name for every Israelite on earth at the present time.

Hence, our burden has been to show that this is not true, and that the Lord still has a nation of Israel, which the prophets locate in the islands of the sea northwest of Palestine, who are not, never have been, and never will be, Jews. And that this island nation of Israel, which, according to prophecy, was to dwell alone and not be reckoned among the nations, did thus dwell alone, and for FIFTEEN CENTURIES WERE NOT reckoned among the nations.

During this time, according also to the prophets, they were to "keep silent," until they had renewed their national strength, and had become not only "the mart of nations," but the "chief of nations" also, and were finally to become the strongest war power on earth, or at least a victorious and unconquerable people, who were never to be defeated in any war with non-Israelitish nations. During the period of recuperation they were to lose a brother nation which was to become "a great people," while the people in the isles, the brother nation out of which the "great nation" came, was to become a "company of nations." (or Commonwealth)

Consequently, we have been so intent upon locating the Joseph-Israel, the Ephraim-Israel, the birthright people, the Lord's "hidden"-secreted-ones," that as a dear friend said to us only a few days ago: "You seemingly, have left out many of the other Saxon people, who are just as much the actual descendants of the house of Israel-the Ten Tribes as the people in the British Isles, and those whose mother land it is."

This may seem to be true, but in our book, Judah's Sceptre and Joseph Birthright we have given a somewhat exhaustive exposition of the prophecies concerning the tribe of Dan, showing that the peoples of the entire Scandinavian regions, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands were the descendants of this tribe. This we emphatically reaffirm. Moreover, as we have previously shown, it is also true that a portion of the German domain is Israelitish, especially Saxony, and all of its subjects who are Saxons (sons of Isaac) in truth and verity. This fact was demonstrated in the late great World War, for at one time, very early in the war it was heralded by the daily newspapers all over the land, that a regiment of German soldiers from Saxony, when placed in trenches opposite an English regiment sent up a signal of truce saying, "We are brothers. We are not going to fight you." Prior to leaving they signaled again saying, "We are being relieved by a Prussian regiment. Look out!" It was at this time that the then Emperor of Germany learned never again to put Saxon soldiers against English Saxons, giving as his reason that they were too friendly.

'Over the Top' by British artist John Nash (1893-1977)

Therefore, we dedicate this little work to the Saxons, the Anglo-Saxons and their semi-racial brethren of Jewish-Israel, the world over, wherever found or of whatever nation they may now be the subjects, but especially to our own countrymen, with whose national heraldry we are now dealing:

Because we know that, as sure as the Lord liveth, there is coming a day when all who shall have reached the fountain opened in the house of David for sin and uncleanness, shall be put together never to be divided again any more at all, when Judah shall look upon him whom they pierced, and shall mourn that fact. At this time the Lord will be king over all the earth, Israel shall bud and blossom and fill the whole earth with fruit, and righteousness cover the earth as the water covers the sea, for the Lord God of their fathers and ours says:

"I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed upon Carmel and Bashan, and his SOUL SHALL BE SATISFIED upon the mount Ephraim and Gilead."[Joseph's territorial possession.]

In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of ISRAEL shall be sought for, and there shall be NONE; and the sins of JUDAH [the Jews], and they shall not be FOUND: for I will PARDON them whom I reserve."

(JEREMIAH 50:19-20)

Yours for the whole truth of God,
